
COMPANY PROFILE

“Coursys Digitech India Private Limited” headquartered in Mumbai is incorporated by a team of professionals with rich and diverse experience across information technology, security, identification domain. With exceptional industry experience and having led global and leading Indian companies at leadership positions it's promoters have embarked on a journey to offer a one-stop solution in identification, digital security and access control domain for large and medium enterprises. At Coursys, we strive to stay focused on digital security by intensifying our products and solutions to meet enterprise customers digital security needs.

At the heart of Coursys lies the ability to stay hungry for innovation by adopting best practises and processes and adhering to corporate governance and culture. Our Associate Partners and OEM's are recognized global brands and are best in class in ID personalization, access control and digital locks and offer some of the finest world class integrated solutions in ID personalization, customized card printing tools, database connectivity, instant issuance and centralised printing across a multi-location office scenario. Our software solutions team with understanding on key technologies and its practical applicability endeavours to integrate unique customized solutions and tools for an enterprise customer focused on customer connect, loyalty, access solutions across retail, healthcare, education, manufacturing using various integrated solutions and which will enable building a bridge between the enterprise and their customers to help enhance customer retention, connect and repeat business.

Under the distribution arm, Coursys is associated with global brand leaders in security and identification arena to offer world class products to its channel partners comprising of access control, door locks, ID card printer amongst others. With a stock point conveniently located near Mumbai, Coursys is in a position to efficiently cater to distribution requirements both within entry tax and entry tax free (octroi free) zones. Coursys endeavours to become a leading distribution company with steadfast resolution to enhance market share and profitability for its associates.

Coursys is also the Registering Authority (RA) for E-mudhra who are one of the leading “Certifying Authority” for issuance of “Digital Signature Certificate”. Coursys will register and offer “DSC” through its team of dedicated personnel at its Mumbai office, through online mode and also through its channel partner base in Pan India.

At Coursys, we strive to become a trusted brand for its customers, channel partners and principals and offer innovative products and solutions in the security and identification domain and increase our geographic presence in Pan India and in South Asia region. Coursys continuously focuses on skill building across the enterprise value chain and provide impetus to breed innovation and entrepreneurship.

At Coursys, we aspire to unlock key solutions to improve customer experience and bring delight. Coursys strives for an organization built on “lasting goodwill & better customer experience”. With a skilled team of engineers, Coursys offers technical and service support through its centralised support desk at Mumbai for both Warranty and Annual Maintenance Contract requirement of its customers through a well stocked spares and supplies facility located at Mumbai. Similarly the stock point located in Mumbai houses sufficient stocks for all products which will help to provide faster delivery turnaround time for its customers and also for its channel partners.

